

Mr. SPECTER. Mr. President, there are still a couple of other wrap-up items.

DESIGNATING THE "ED EDMONDSON UNITED STATES COURTHOUSE" IN MUSKOGEE, OKLAHOMA

Mr. SPECTER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate proceed to the immediate consideration of H.R. 1668, which is at the desk.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will state the bill by title.

The legislative clerk read as follows:

A bill (H.R. 1668) to designate the United States courthouse located at 101 North Fifth Street in Muskogee, Oklahoma, as the "Ed Edmondson United States Courthouse."

There being no objection, the Senate proceeded to consider the bill.

Mr. SPECTER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the bill be read the third time and passed, the motion to reconsider be laid upon the table, and that any statements relating to the bill be printed in the RECORD.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The bill (H.R. 1668) was read the third time and passed.

STAR PRINT—SENATE REPORT 108-113

Mr. SPECTER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate report No. 108-113 be star printed with the changes at the desk.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

COMPLETION OF H.R. 2660

Mr. SPECTER. Mr. President, I thank the assistant Democratic leader. I think it has been a productive day—starting at 5 o'clock. I am happy to have had the votes. It breaks the logjam. We had quite a number of amendments offered this evening. I think the stage has been set to move with dispatch tomorrow.

The assistant Democratic leader has made the suggestion about early votes, which I think is a good idea. Very little remains on both sides. There is always great temptation to proceed with alacrity once the light at the end of the tunnel signifies no additional votes, at which point the railways and airlines become congested with 100 passengers. So we now have that incentive to move ahead with dispatch tomorrow to complete the bill. I think it will be a signal accomplishment to get it done.

ADJOURNMENT UNTIL 9:30 A.M.
TOMORROW

Mr. SPECTER. Mr. President, if there is no further business to come before the Senate, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate stand in adjournment under the previous order.

There being no objection, the Senate, at 9:11 p.m., adjourned until Wednesday, September 10, at 9:30 a.m.
